NOVELTY DARTS NAILS, EXHIBITION, SKILL, TWIN SET & ANTIQUE COIN TOSS

These are fantastic fun and can be profitable too! if you play for a pint or a little cash? Some ideas for games; Round the board 1 to 10 and finish on a bullseye. 101 or 301. First to hit three bullseyes (not in one throw of course! but possible) and I'm sure you could make some games up of your own. Nails have become increasingly popular in the last 4 years and a few professionals are using them now in their exhibitions. Hard black case and point block are included.

If you want to know more about nail throwing history you can find links to info and video on the net, Joe Hitchcock.

Abbey Regulation Darts

set of Abbey Regulation ' Mafeking ' darts in superb condition and in original box (one side of the upper part of box is missing.) With goose feather flight, wooden shaft and metal barrel, each dart weighs approx 33 gms and is 6ins in length. According to former pro and vintage dart connoisseur,Keith Naylor " the best quality tooled barrels I've seen in 40 years " I believe these darts are of 50's vintage and have been well used but well cared for. The upper part of box has 3 small holes where presumably the previous owner has rested them between throws. Lovely old set of arrows, a highly desirable addition to any collection.

SET OF THREE FEATHER DARTS

SET OF THREE UNICORN DARTS IN ORIGINAL BAKELITE CASE

set Kwiz wooden shaft darts with Abbey Stripe flights

A set of 3 vintage darts which have wooden shafts and card flights which say Abbey Stripe and British Made to them. The outer plastic box says Kwiz and to one end is a sticker saying Heavy No. 303 29 grms 2 3/4". From end to end the darts measure 14cms, also in the box are two screw in plastic shafts although these may be from another set and were just stored in here by the original owner. The flights are a little tatty and there is some surface wear and damage to the edge of one wing on one flight and a few small knocks or similar, the metal tips show some tarnish or similar, the wooden shafts are in very good condition although there is rusting to the metal belt just under the flights. The plastic box has some general grubbiness in hard to reach area but no cracks or splits etc and appears to have sat around in a shed or attic for many years.

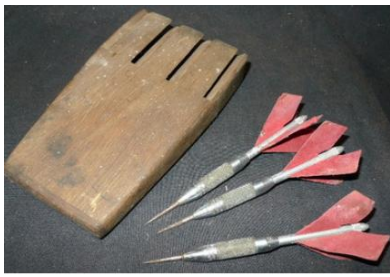

set Silvertrim darts with poor condition feather flights

A set of 3 vintage darts which are metal (brass ?) with wooden and feather flights although as per the scan the flights are pretty tatty and do not match. The actual points and metal parts of the darts match and I would say at one stage or another the flight areas have been replaced, from tip to tip the darts measure 13cm. The plastic case says to the lid Finest Quality The Silvertrim Darts Accurately Made and to the inside lid it says Silvertrim and Standardtrim Darts and Dartflights Made in England by LA & EW Tunnicliffe Ltd Bloxwich S Staffs. There is some general surface tarnish etc to the metal area of the darts, the plastic case has some grubbiness in harder to reach areas and an odd small sign of wear but has a great design feature of 3 holes to the lid so the darts could be stored inbetween games without having to put them back in the case.

Bakelite Unicorn Darts Set Excellent Condition

VINTAGE SET OF DARTS IN PURPOSE MADE OAK CARRIER. JOHN WISDEN COMETS

With thanks to information received I am revising this description to add important information.

It has been suggested that these are an original set of darts made by John Wisden & Co., who was one of the founders of Unicorn Darts. They would appear to be much earlier than I thought. Each dart has the name COMET STANDARD, and the patent number 30259/37., and weighs 19gms.. If the 37 relates to the year then that helps to explain the slight Art Deco styling of the flights, which look to be the originals. This is a relic of the last half century.; one of the things that has changes much more than one might imagine they could. The set a darts. 40 years ago you would see people carrying a set of darts in all sorts of bulky cases to protect the fragile flights which were still made from feathers until 40 years ago. Then some enterprising individual invented the slotted tops so that you could interchange your flights easily and they were made of different materials like tough paper, card and nylon plastics. Craftsmen dart players would make their own carriers like this one by boring three holes in a piece of wood and making six diagonal saw cuts for the flights. This is well made from solid Oak so the darts slip inside with the flights well protected. The darts in this carrier are Comet Standards and the flights are thin card. It all looks a bit grubby, and the points have some light rust, because they were found in the tool box along with the woodwork tools that I have currently listed nice old relic of the British Pub culture destroyed, like the pubs themselves, by the big pub chains such as Enterprise Inns, Punch Taverns, admiral and the rest of the scum. Made from a piece of 1 inch thick oak, 3 ½ inches wide and nearly 6 inches long.
